

R.04

private apartment

year: 2016

location: corso Genova - Milan

sqm: 100

at Fabio Azzolina Architetto

Such is the peace of this internal courtyard that you might forget you are in the middle of Milan. A young business man passionate about Art selected this very unique spot and approached us to work on the renovation project. Our design had to take into account all his art work – finishes and materials were carefully selected to ensure perfect consistency.

