

P.02

Pigreco table

year: 2014

location: -

sqm: -

at REID

This table was designed for a competition launched by Riva 1920. The concept is to combine solid wood and iron in a sculptural and minimal design. The two strong legs hold the top part made of a light iron profile that contains the large wooden boards which give to the table the shape of the greek mathematical symbol.

